

Dolmans Cookies Statement

Cookies are small pieces of data stored on a site visitor's browser. They are typically used to keep track of the settings users have selected and actions they have taken on a site.

We use cookies for many important reasons, such as:

- To provide a great experience for our visitors.
- To monitor and analyse the performance, operation and effectiveness of our website.
- To ensure our platform is secure and safe to use.

Our cookies aren't used to identify you personally; they're just here to improve our website. We use cookies to see how visitors move through our site so that we can better understand and subsequently improve your browsing experience. You are able to block your browser from being able to store cookie tracking information. Your browser has privacy settings whereby you can select the level of tracking that you desire.

As an example, Internet Explorer has within their privacy settings in internet options, a sliding scale from 'accept all cookies' to 'block all cookies' and you can choose exactly which setting you prefer.
